Index

aesthetic education, 187–188
African music, 119–137
anthropology, 101
artists in schools, 190–191
assessment of aural perception, 23, 29–30 assessment of children's compositions, 224; criteria for, 144–146 assignments in aural training, 23, 24–38
Associated Board (ABRSM), theory syllabus, 95
auditioning, 200
aural awareness, 22, 83
Australia, music education in, 149, 154–158 childhood, musical influences in, 39–41; language and music experiences in, 65 Chinese traditional music, 101–118 close (language teaching method applied to music), 70–71 concentration in musical performance, 167 confidence building in instrumental teaching, 229 communication, 271

composing; element in GCSE, 3, 90–91; in the classroom, 90–91, 315–319; with electronic keyboards, 90–91; as part of instrumental lessons, 219, 245 creativity, 161; in instrumental teaching, 205–311 criticism, musical, 140

early music course for GCSE, 4–5; resource materials for, 8–12, 14; MEG syllabus for, 12 electronic keyboards, 90–91, 319–320 erhu (Chinese bowed instrument), 102–104 family background, music in, 42–43 fugue, 199

GCSE; criteria for music, 3–4; aural tests, 22, composing, 90–91, 242 gender and age classifications in West African music, 128–130 gender comparisons in instrumental learning, 18 graded instrumental examinations, 199–200 ground bass, 4; student's composition on, 5–7 guitar technique, 193–194

hand signs, 73, 75

improvisation, 88–89, 242, 271 Indian music in education, 191–192 instrument learning, 15–20; attitudes of pupils, 19, 41; parental influence upon, 19, 30; sibling influences upon, 44–47; influence of particular teachers, 55–57; practising, 57–59; concentration and slow practice in, 167; confidence building in, 229

Jazz education, 189, 199

Kodály Concept, 73–75, 183–184

language and music, similarities between, 65 et seq, 161–166, 271 et seq listening; learning to listen, 21–22; influence of upon learning an instrument, 48–49; 'jigsaw' (directed) listening, 69

madrigals, 7
motivation in learning musical instruments, 15–20, 39 musical development, stages of, 140–143 musical perception, 21–38 musical training, ignorance of important aspects of, 62

music in education, purpose of, 149; history of, 313–315

National Curriculum, 12, 16, 19, 216, 316
National Early Music Association, 3 notation, 216, 235

pedagogic philosophies, 67–68
percussion, 321
Performing component of GCSE, 3 performing, enjoyment of, 59–61, 139 philosophy of music education, 150–153 plainsong, 4
play, properties of, 207; relevance of for music, 209; play and schooling, 213 popular music studies, 86–88, 322 primary schools, 15; music courses for, 91–94, 149, 320 private music teachers, research project, 181

renaissance dances, 5
rhythm training, 94–95

semiotics, 66–67
solfa, 73, 215, 271
social factors in instrumental learning, 18 song books, 323–326
specialist music school, 39

talent, musical, 46–47
tension in performance, 169–173, 176 Tower Hamlets string teaching project, 84–86 twentieth century music, 185–187 violin playing, 198; Suzuki methods, 214; value in general education, 219

woodwind, music for, 195–197